PROJECTS

Currently Andy has been seeing much of cultural influence from Asia in North America. As there are much cultural differences, he has been working on new projects that embraces both cultures and influences each other positively. In this globalized world, Andy has become the translator of the two cultures: Asia and North America. Growing up in Canada as a Chinese descendent, Andy has become an expert of the two cultures and with his talent, he believes he can minimize the misunderstanding and break the stereotypes of the two cultures.

With this goal in mind, Andy is currently working on the following projects:

G2 (Generation Two) - the root, the success and the future

A documentary series to showcase the immigration history of Chinese in Canada. This documentary series will cover each generation and the success stories from each generation.

The Elite Vancouver LuxExpo - is a luxury exhibition specifically tailored to an ultra-affluent market.

The Elite Vancouver LuxExpo is the premier luxury lifestyle exhibition in the West Coast, a brand showcase without equal.

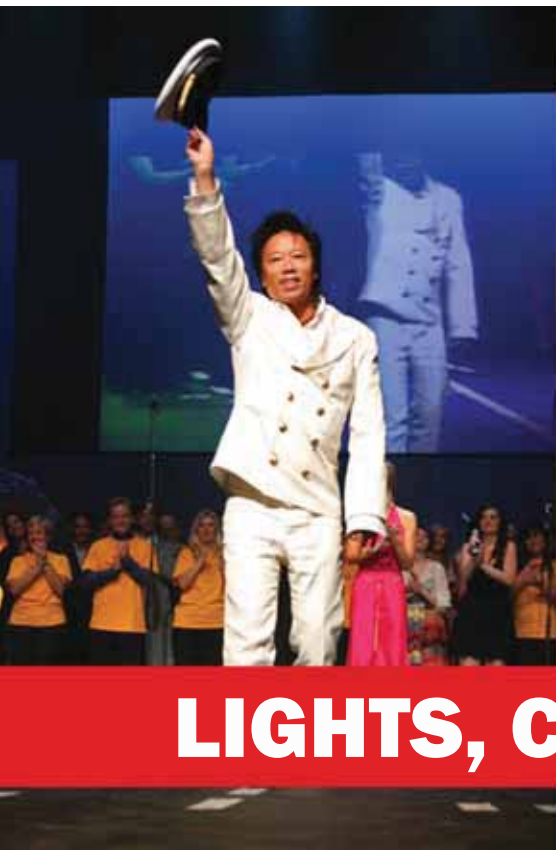

Pasta La Vista - a contemporary feature film

East meets west as the descendants of Marco Polo and a Chinese noodle maker intersect after the centuries in search of love and the perfect noodle. Food, music, rivalries, tradition and distinct cultures collide in a romantic comedy set in Venice and Xi'an.

FMA Charity Concert Gala - a live concert, uniting Fashion, Music & Art on one Stage

With the current projects, Andy pursues the goal of understanding and acceptance of multi cultural society. His love and care for people have led him to the current projects and they are sure to be a hit.

The key difference of Andy from every other producer is his personality. It is his love and care for others and the down to earth personality that has made Andy one of the most popular socialite in Vancouver. He may seem like he is living in a fast lane but Andy is friends to many around the world and cared for in all different cities and countries. Combined with his personality and talent, Andy's thankful to the two cultures that have guided him to his success. Andy believes now is the time to give back and unveil to the world, the two cultures that made him who he is.
